Music in the Park at Ward Park Bandstand 3-5pm*

*except Sunday 1 July, 4pm-6pm and Sunday 26 August, 1pm-5pm (Music begins 2.30pm)

Programmed by Open House Festival

Sunday 1 July

Katie and the Midnight Sailors

Harmony driven heartfelt music to sing loudly and stamp your feet to. Americana, folk, rock and even pop - presented with passion and attitude.

Sunday 8 July

The Sandrunners

Acoustic six piece delivering great original songs in their own unique style, from Americana to folk and rock.

Sunday 15 July

Mark Braidner Trio

An eclectic mix of down-home delta and country blues, this trio recreates the pre-war blues sounds of the 1920s American south, with a bit of rock 'n roll and soul thrown in for good measure.

Sunday 22 July

Fealty's Back Bar Trad Session

Celebrating 40 years of Bangor's regular Friday night traditional Irish music session.

Sunday 29 July

Wilfie

A rustic, soul-driven selection of country folk music with a voice that's difficult to forget.

Sunday 5 August

19th Street Band

Often compared to June Carter and Johnny Cash, this Holywood Co Down/ USA act deliver red hot Americana, country and Rock'n'Roll on fiddle, guitar and vocals.

Sunday 12 August

Revival Picnic

A nostalgic trip back to Bangor's holiday resort heyday, with Andrew's Sisters styled harmony trio The Victory Rollers. Prizes for best dressed and best picnic.

Sunday 19 August

Punk in the Park

Members of Asylum Re'bel Stalag 17 Ensemble deliver a rousing selection of classic punk and new wave.

Sunday 26 August

Bluegrass Picnic - The Clay Pigeons

Bringing you the fastest, funkiest Bluegrass music this side of the Atlantic, from traditional Appalachian tunes and songs to banjo-heavy reworkings of a shed load of your favourite anthems.
